Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Jim Salyer has been an outstanding liaison between the Department of Game, Fish and Parks and the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service throughout his tenure from August 23, 1982 to March 18, 1988; and,

WHEREAS, Jim Salyer demonstrated outstanding leadership while acting as director of the Wildlife Division of the Department of Game, Fish and Parks from April 22, 1985 through November 17, 1986; and,

WHEREAS, Jim Salyer initiated the first statewide program of boating access for the benefit of all recreational water users in South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Jim Salyer dedicated his life-long interest and expertise in waterfowl management and habitat manipulation to develop cooperative projects between the Department of Game, Fish and Parks and Ducks Unlimited which has helped produce a waterfowl development program which is second to none; and,

WHEREAS, It is proper and fitting that the great State of South Dakota recognize Jim for providing many hours of recreation for the citizens of this state;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 18, 1988, as in South Dakota, and I wish Jim and his family continued health and happiness in all of their future years.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Ninth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
